Pity For Poor Africans

I own I am shocked at the purchase of slaves,
And fear those who buy them and sell them are knaves;
What I hear of their hardships, their tortures, and groans
Is almost enough to draw pity from stones.

I pity them greatly, but I must be mum,
For how could we do without sugar and rum?
Especially sugar, so needful we see;
What, give up our desserts, our coffee, and tea?

Besides, if we do, the French, Dutch, and Danes,
Will heartily thank us, no doubt, for our pains:
If we do not buy the poor creatures, they will:
And tortures and groans will be multiplied still...

EAST INDIA SUGAR BASINS.

B. HENDERSON,
China-Warehouse,
RYE-LANE, PECKHAM,

Respectfully informs the Friends of Africa,
that she has on Sale an Assortment of *Sugar
Basins*, handsomely labelled in Gold Letters:
"East India Sugar not made by Slaves."

"A Family that uses 5lb. of Sugar per Week, will, by using East India, instead of West India, for 21 Months, prevent the Slavery, or Murder of one Fellow-Creature! Eight such Families in 19 Years, will prevent the Slavery, or Murder of 100!!"

PRINTED AT THE CAMBERWELL PRESS, BY J. B. G. VOGEL.

It has been calculated, that if one tenth of the inhabitants of this country abstained from the use of West India sugar, and used East India, their influence in discouraging slave-labour, and encouraging free-labour, would be sufficient to abolish slavery in the West Indies.

May every man, before he indulges his appetite with the blood-bought luxury, reflect upon the price it cost. Not eightpence, or tenpence, or twelpence, or fourteenpence the pound only; but groans, and wounds, and death. As he sweetens his tea, let him reflect on the bitterness at the bottom of the cup. Let him bring the subject home to his heart, and say, as he truly may, this lump cost the poor slave a groan,—and this, a bloody stroke with the cart-whip;—and this, perhaps, worn down by fatigue and wretchedness and despair, he sunk under his misery and died! And then let him swallow his beverage with what appetite he may.

Let every one remember that by using his exertions for the abolition of slavery, he may prevent the perpetration of innumerable crimes. How few,
