

Former places of worship in the Diocese of Southwark

GREENWICH (WEST), HOLY TRINITY

Ref: GRE01

Also known as BLACKHEATH HILL, HOLY TRINITY

Status demolished
Borough Greenwich
Present parish GREENWICH, ST ALFEGE
Built 1837
Build architect unknown

Further information The building is believed to date from 1837 (see link) and had its own parish from 1849, but the earliest surviving registers are 1868.

It was damaged during World War 2 and declared redundant in 1946 but the dates of registers suggest it remained in use up to 1950. Demolished 1951, housing (Cade Tyler House) is now on the site.

The name survived parish mergers as Deptford, Holy Trinity with St Paul, and presently as Deptford, St John with Holy Trinity (St Paul's closed in 1984). The Bennett Grove Centre is now known as Deptford, Holy Trinity but is not on the site of the original church.
