Further information

A licensed place of worship in the parish of West Greenwich, Holy Trinity (GRE01), still in use up to 1937 but presumed lost in World War 2. A RAM (Reorganisation Areas Measure) scheme of 1951 vested the endowment of the land in the Church Commissioners and the land became glebe and the Diocese holds a Deed of Appropriation, although it does not feature in the present inventory of Diocesan glebe.

The street has been renamed and the site is now covered by the diverted River Ravensbourne.
