

DIOCESAN SYNOD

Diocesan Council of Trustees Elections

1. Following a nominations process to elect members of Synod to the Diocesan Council of Trustees, we can confirm that the following places have been elected, uncontested:

Clergy
--------	--	--	--

Croydon	Alison Way	Leslie Wells
Kingston	Greg Prior

Laity
-------	--	--	--

Croydon	Christopher Elliott	David Keiller	Alex Helliwell
Woolwich	Bill Bishop
Free Area	Jacqueline Dean

2. Elected members' terms of office are until the end of the current triennium.
3. Five clergy nominations, for two seats, were received for the Woolwich Episcopal Area. As such, hustings for this Area will take place following Synod on 17 November. Elections are undertaken by electronic/postal vote shortly afterwards. Nominees for election are:

Peter Farley-Moore	Jonathan Macy	Catherine Shelley
Jonathan Sedgwick	Philip Peter Corbett

4. An election address for each of the candidates will accompany the voting forms.
5. There are currently vacancies for the Laity in the Kingston Area (3 places) and Woolwich Area (2 places), and two further places any area. The House of Laity will meet following the Synod to discuss the vacancies. A further nomination process will begin shortly to fill these places. The deadline for nominations will be Friday 30 November at noon. Nomination forms will have been sent to the House of Laity and copies will be available at Synod.
