

The Role of Deaneries and the Rules and Constitution of Deanery Synods

2020-2023

The Diocese of Southwark

This document was approved by the Diocesan Council of Trustees on 27th February 2020 and commended for approval by Southwark Diocesan Synod at its first meeting in 2020 (date to be confirmed).

The rules for the conduct of the business of Deanery Synods in the Diocese are authorized by the Diocesan Synod under Rule 26 of the Church Representation Rules 2020.

Southwark Vision

The five objectives of Southwark Vision 2017-2025 are set out below. These provide the framework for Deanery activity:

- to grow our average weekly attendance by 5% by 2025, partly through having each church develop a high-quality Mission Action Plan (MAP) which includes a course for evangelism and discipleship
- by 2025, to increase the number of worshipping communities with a primary focus on areas of population growth through investment in Fresh Expressions (FxC) in the areas where the data suggests the existing congregations are increasingly unrepresentative of the resident community and therefore unlikely to be successful in reaching them without intentional intervention
- to grow a financial resource base that allows investment in growth for the future. Key measurables include: annual financial surplus, working financial reserves equivalent to 6 months operating costs by 2020, 1% of Diocesan turnover annually dedicated to major Diocesan ministry and mission projects beginning in 2016, rising to 2% by 2020
- to grow the number of ordained and lay vocations by 50% by 2020 by enabling and discerning ordained ministers; by expanding opportunities for licensed and commissioned lay leadership; by affirming and growing other forms of lay ministry (e.g. worship leaders, family & youth leaders, spiritual directors); to offer relevant and enriching training, and create networks of support and celebration which reflect the diversity of the Diocese, our commitment to evangelism and discipleship, and delivers fully integrated and pioneering church growth and fresh expressions
- by 2025, to grow leadership and representation that reflects the rich diversity of our Diocese and especially focusing where the data suggests groups are currently underrepresented: through ethnicity, age (especially 18-40), educational opportunities, material well being, tradition.

1. Introduction to this document

This document falls into two parts. Part A relates generally to Deaneries and Part B specifically to Deanery Synods. While every Deanery has a Deanery Synod, and although the two terms are often used interchangeably, they are two distinct things. Both are necessary in the Church of England and serve an ongoing need to demonstrate more vitality and purpose, the characteristics of a vibrant Deanery, in the mission and ministry that is largely a matter for local initiatives.

This document sets out the characteristics of a vibrant Deanery and outlines the model rules for Deanery Synods, which are a necessary part of synodical governance. This document should be read alongside the Joint Handbook for Area Deans and Deanery Lay Chairs and the Toolkit for Deaneries.

<https://southwark.anglican.org/deaneries/>

Rules are required to be made by the Diocesan Synod by virtue of Rule 26(2) of the Church Representation Rules 2020. Sub paragraphs (a) - (g) specify what must be included in the Rules.

In compiling this document, the aim is that these rules for Deanery Synods shall be:

- user friendly - written in simple, accessible language;
- mission focussed - to facilitate the mission of the Deanery;
- as flexible as possible - allowing the Deanery Synod to determine its own procedures where practical.

2. Part A - Deaneries

I. What is a Deanery?

Deaneries are designated groups of Parishes within an Archdeaconry who have the opportunity and encouragement to work in partnership with each other to celebrate and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with the people entrusted to their care.

Deaneries form an important bridge between Parishes and the wider church, including the Diocese. Working together, churches within a Deanery support each other and share resources as well as information on Mission Action Plans (MAPs) and Parish Support Fund pledges. To underline this interconnectedness, it may help to consider using the strapline “Rooted in my Parish, connected in my Deanery, growing in our Diocese.”

In Southwark Diocese there are 25 Deaneries. Each Deanery is jointly led by the Lay Chair, who is elected by the lay members of the Deanery Synod, and the Area Dean who is appointed by the Bishop after consultation with the local Clergy and the Lay Chair<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> The Area Dean and Lay Chair may be assisted by an Assistant Area Dean and/or a Deputy Lay Chair.

One of Bishop Christopher's three episcopal priorities in the Charge given to him at the confirmation of his election in 2011 is to breathe new life into Deaneries. In addition, a key issue for our Diocese identified by the second Strategy for Ministry report (2015) is to ensure that Deaneries become viable centres of mission and ministry. This document aims to support Deaneries as they move towards achieving this goal.

II. The Vision for Deaneries in the Diocese of Southwark

A vision for Deaneries in the Diocese of Southwark, as recommended by the Deaneries Advisory Group, was endorsed by the Diocesan Council of Trustees at its meeting on 15 October 2016. This vision is shown opposite.

The Diocesan Council of Trustees (DCT) is the statutory committee of the Diocesan Synod and the DCT is comprised of trustees and directors who together hold, through its four constituent bodies, responsibility for the policy, financial and pastoral decisions necessary to implement the vision and strategy of Diocesan Synod. The four constituent bodies of the DCT are; the Bishop's Council, the Diocesan Board of Finance, the Diocesan Mission & Pastoral Committee and the Diocesan Parsonages Board.

III. Deanery Leadership Teams

In July 2018, Diocesan Synod approved the main recommendation of the Deaneries Advisory Group that every Deanery should have a Deanery Leadership Team (DLT). The purpose of the DLT is to

- Work together to lead the Deanery in fulfilling the Southwark Vision for mission and growth
- Take on the functions of the Standing Committee - the members of the Standing Committee comprising the 3 officers should be members of the DLT

The DLT is accountable to the Synod and should report to the Synod at each meeting. Membership of the DLT is confirmed by the Synod - members should comprise a range of people who are committed to delivering the objectives of Southwark Vision within the Deanery. Membership of the DLT should be reviewed at the start of each triennium and kept under review.

Vision for Deaneries - to become viable centres of Mission & Ministry 'Partners in the Gospel'

Strategy for Ministry 2 challenged us to 'ensure that Deaneries become viable centres of mission and ministry'. Deaneries are geographical groups of parishes whose congregations work in partnership with each other to celebrate the Good News of Jesus Christ and share the Gospel with all people. Deaneries are places where Anglican Christians relate to each other; pray and worship with each other; meet and decide with each other; and work, serve and witness with each other.

Working collaboratively with the structures of the Diocese as well as with Bishop's Mission Order (BMOs), Church Schools, other chaplaincies, mission agencies and ecumenical partners, Deaneries will:

1. actively promote the growth of the Church of overall numbers attending, in the number of congregations and fresh expressions, in the depth of discipleship and the equipping and releasing of lay people for mission, in the growth of vocations to ordained, licensed and authorised ministries and in the expansion in the range of lay ministries
2. encourage churches to reflect in their leadership and culture the diversity of the Deanery, including ethnicity, age, socio-economic circumstances and tradition
3. support parishes in holding each other to account to become transparent, accountable, generous and robust in pledges and contributions for the Parish Support Fund
4. encourage and challenge one another in the development and continuing implementation of Mission Action Plans and the use of Diocesan mission statistics
5. develop collaborative working for mission and ministry purposes amongst ordained, licensed and authorised ministers
6. provide regular, vibrant and engaging opportunities for meeting, prayer, dialogue and training across church traditions, including Synods
7. be creative, imaginative, risk-taking and strategic in making recommendations for deployment, including Deanery-wide or cross parish appointments, through their Deanery Leadership Team (DLT)
8. be one of the key communication hubs within the Diocese.

Part B - Deanery Synods

IV. What is a Deanery Synod?

A Deanery Synod is a body which is representative and deliberative, a body which appoints and elects, which may pass motions to its Diocesan Synod, which may receive actions from Diocesan Synod or General Synod and may provide a forum for its members and others to act. It is meant to be sufficiently representative so as to command confidence and sufficiently skilled as to be competent in its business. A Deanery Synod is therefore part of the national synodical structure.

Although Deanery Synods are not part of Diocese of Southwark governance structures, a Deanery Synod is a legal entity and as such it is regulated. The Church Representation Rules 2020 state that ‘the Diocesan Synod shall make rules for Deanery Synods’. These include relevant provisions of the Church Representation Rules. Section 5 of the Synodical Government Measure 1969 is also applicable to the business of the Deanery Synod, as it sets out the functions and constitution of a Deanery Synod.

However, under English law, a Deanery Synod does not enjoy charitable status and is an unincorporated body. This means a Deanery Synod cannot hold property, may not enter into contracts and should not seek to employ staff directly. This is a factor to be taken into account in intra-Deanery endeavours. Briefing on establishing joint enterprises at Deanery level can be found in the Toolkit for Deaneries on the Diocesan website.

<https://southwark.anglican.org/deaneries/>

If a Deanery or Deanery Synod wishes to explore establishing a charitable or corporate body or trust, it should seek advice from an Archdeacon as a first step and consult the Diocesan Secretary and Diocesan Registrar in due course.

V. How is a Deanery Synod Constituted?

Every three years the Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) of each Parish within the Deanery should elect lay representatives to be members of the Deanery Synod. Each clerk in Holy Orders beneficed or licensed to any Parish in the Deanery is also a member of the Deanery Synod. There is also provision for PTO clergy to be represented - CRR 2020 Rule 15 (1) (f).

Lay representatives elected by parishes and BMOs to Deanery Synods, play an important role within a Deanery and at Deanery Synod meetings. They should be fully committed to work for the mission of the wider Church and so to take strategic decisions to advance the mission and ministry in their Deanery as well as to influence Diocesan mission. A leaflet outlining the skills to look for in potential lay representative is available on the Diocesan website.

The members of the Deanery Synod form the electorate for the Diocesan Synod, and the General Synod of the Church of England. Membership is set out in more detail in the Rules enacted for Deanery Synods.

VI. The Governance of Deanery Synods

General Principles Governing the Conduct of Deanery Synod Meetings

- a) That all meetings must be conducted in a transparent, robust and fair manner in a spirit of Christian Grace.
- b) That we are the body of Christ and will seek to work in a collaborative and inclusive way at all times.
- c) Members should be committed to upholding synodical government as instituted by the Church of England.
- d) The Chair is responsible for the conduct of a meeting but is accountable to the meeting and should endeavour to be flexible where possible.
- e) The Chair should strive to ensure a balanced debate and manage the business of the meeting and speakers to time.
- f) The Deanery Synod Standing Committee and Officers are accountable to the Deanery Synod for ensuring the business of the Synod reflects the constitution of the Synod, the context of the Deanery and the mission and ministry of our Diocese.

General guidance on Deanery Synods

Some simple guidance in planning and running the meetings of a Deanery Synod is outlined below together with recommendations and guidance on terms of office.

- a) A mission statement or Mission Action Plan for a Deanery, agreed by the Deanery Synod, can help ensure a sense of common purpose as well as to foster a sense of community as churches take forward the ministry and mission of the whole church.
- b) Successive reviews of Deanery Synods speak of positive outcomes being tied to valuing diversity in the Deanery and being outward looking for mission. Deaneries should try and ensure that, as far as possible, representation on Deanery Synods reflects the diversity of churches in the Deanery.
- c) The constitutional remit for Deanery Synods set out in the Synodical Government Measure is very wide indeed and allows for speakers on an enormous range of topics and an extensive range of activity.
- d) A Deanery Synod will not normally make a financial commitment without a recommendation from the Standing Committee.
- e) Given the twin aims of 'breathing new life into Deaneries' and 'ensuring Deaneries become viable centres of mission and ministry', PCCs are encouraged to give considered thought to who can best act as their Parish Representatives on Deanery Synods. Factors PCCs and APCMs may wish to bear in mind when electing Deanery Synod members include: attendance record; level of commitment to the mission of the Deanery; expected quality of their reporting back to PCCs and APCMs and any potential role on the Deanery Leadership Team. New talent should be encouraged and supported wherever practical.
- f) In keeping with the 'Fit for Purpose'<sup>2</sup> report, and as working towards the goal of breathing new life into Deaneries requires a level of refreshment of membership, it is recommended that Deanery Synod members should be prepared to serve a minimum of one three-year term of office and normally up to a maximum of three three-year terms<sup>3</sup>. PCCs and APCMs are encouraged to demonstrate good practice by reviewing the position of anyone who has served for nine years consecutively.

<sup>2</sup> The Fit for Purpose Group changed radically the way the Diocese is governed, addressing the need to bring resources, finance and policy more closely together. Recommendations included the creation of a Diocesan Council of Trustees (DCT) which is now in place. Deanery Synods are not part of the governance of Southwark Diocese.

<sup>3</sup> For information: Elected members of the DCT normally serve one or two terms of three years and a maximum of three terms, as endorsed by Diocesan Synod in July 2015.

They shall be entitled to receive copies of all documents and notices circulated to members of Synod for all meetings for which their invitation or appointment relates.

14. At the first meeting after each triennial election the Synod shall appoint:

  - d) The Synod may appoint a Secretary, Treasurer or Deputy Lay Chair who are not Officers of the Synod

Apologies for absence and recording attendance

Appendix D - Elections of lay representatives to Deanery Synods<sup>8</sup>

1. The Church Representation Rules 2020 19(1) state
 ‘The parochial representatives of the laity on a deanery synod -

 (a) are elected every three years beginning with 2020 by the annual parochial church meeting of each parish in the deanery, and

 (b) hold office for a term of three years beginning with the next 1 July following the date of their election.’
2. At its meeting on 10 November 2007, the Diocesan Synod adopted an approach that recognised both the existence of multi-church parishes and the practice where often the maintenance of the electoral roll is in several sections, one for each of the churches and congregations of the parish.
3. On 16 November 2019, the Diocesan Synod approved the number of lay representatives per parish / church as shown in the table below. The numbers of lay representatives from each church or multi-church parish are determined the year before the triennial elections of Deanery Synod members. Such details are then communicated to PCC Secretaries, Team Secretaries and Incumbents with instructions and guidance on how to proceed.

Total Electoral Roll Numbers for a Parish or individual church/ congregation electoral roll numbers for multi-church parish	Number of Lay Representatives to Deanery Synod
