

Charles Britton

Candidate for General Synod

Proposed by: Greta Townsend

Seconded by: Celia Bush

Why I am standing

As a retired civil servant, I believe that my experience and knowledge can be useful as an active member of General Synod.

I believe in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Such belief enables our congregation to handle diversity and uphold unity.

About me

I was born in Guyana, where I was baptised and confirmed as an Anglian. Arriving in London in 1961, my faith was put to the test when I discovered that black people were not freely welcomed.

I have worshipped at St .Stephen with St. Mark, Lewisham for many years. I have been the Vice Chair of the Parochial Church Council for several years.

I am good at public speaking and can communicate constructively.

Over the years, we have observed scenes that cause us to believe that society has lost its moral compass. I believe that it is for us as a Church to reverse such trends. Now is the time for us to engage with young people in our society.

I thank God that I am part of a Church where unity and service to the community are frequently exercised. I have witnessed the love of God being offered through the ministry of priests who visit the sick and perform the last rites.

Conclusion

My prayers are with all candidates standing for election to General Synod.

Please consider awarding me either your first vote or a high preference vote.
