

CONFIDENTIAL Candidate's Proforma and Narrative Stage 2

Please type this form. What you say will help the Bishops' Advisers to begin to assess how deeply you are inhabiting the Six Qualities for Discernment. It will also help them in preparing for your Interview.

Section A - Your Personal Details

(This will contain the usual key data about the person on page 1 including category of Sponsorship etc)

Section B – About you

Word limit for Section B: 1,600 words

Occupational history

Please give a brief chronological account (with dates) of your occupational pattern since leaving full time education. Please indicate your reasons for leaving any position you have held. Your occupational pattern can include voluntary and family responsibilities.

Significant life events and their impact upon you

Please outline chronologically any key times/events in your life, giving a brief description of their influence on you and how they have helped to shape you as a person. Please note: the development of your calling does not need to be narrated here, as there is opportunity to write about this in Section C.

Your learning

What would you like the Advisers to know about any learning you have undertaken? Please note that you do not have to list any qualifications you might have, though you can if you wish to. Please include any Christian learning or courses undertaken that you would like the Advisers to be aware of.

Section C - The Six Qualities

Word limit for Section C: 3000 words

Your responses to the Six Qualities will help to bring you and your sense of calling to life for the Advisers. They will want to see in your narrative your personal growth and development. You are invited to write about yourself in relation to each of the six qualities drawing on the work you have done with your DDO. You are advised to read the Guidance Notes before completing this section of the form. Please write as fully and as candidly as you can within the confines of the word limit for this section.
