

WE ARE RECRUITING:
COMMON GOOD SCHOOLS PROJECT LEADER

Are you a chaplain? In youth ministry? Do you have some solid school management experience under your belt? Is the Holy Spirit calling you to a new path?

Together for the Common Good is looking for someone to lead on the roll out of our Common Good Schools programme. This is a national role. You will be influencing the role schools can play in civil society as well as ensuring young people are prepared for the challenging and often divided world in which we live.

This post is home-based but requires travel within the UK. 4 days per month for 12 months to be worked flexibly. Salary of £8,000 pa (£40,000 FTE). Funding currently in place for 12 months but a longer term post is a realistic possibility. Secondment proposals are welcome.
