

Question Cards on FoRB

What if owning a Bible led to being imprisoned?	Have you ever denied your faith or belief?	Are your symbols of faith important to you?
Have you had to make a difficult sacrifice?	Have you ever shared your faith or belief in your workplace?	Would you give up your faith to protect your family?
With my faith hidden, whom could I trust?	Have you ever worshipped in an unusual place?	Do you think it is important to worship in a church or faith building?
How could you keep your faith alive if you were isolated from other believers?	How would you search to find others who think like you?	How would you feel if you were told what to believe?
Have you ever committed a poem or verse to memory? Was it easy?	Have you ever travelled a long way to do something important to you?	Have you had to pretend to be something, or someone you are not, in order to keep safe?
Have you had to choose your words carefully with family or those you consider friends?	At school, or work, or college, have you ever spoken about your faith or belief?	What would it be like to sing in a whisper so no one outside the room could hear?